You have 14 points but so what. You have no 5-card suit to Overcall. You cannot make a Takeout Double with 4 of their suit. So you pass. It is important to realize that there are hands you would open but cannot overcall with.

With four trumps and 12 points you have a text-book raise to 3♥. Partner had a minimum overcall though, so he passed.

With 12 points and a good suit you have a very solid overcall so you bid 1 ♥. Partner responds 2 ♥.

Partner is showing 6-10 points and three trumps. Your hand revalues to 14 at most so you pass.

You really don't like partner's ♠s, and you do have 8 points. But 8 points is not enough to be considering game, and you would have to bid your ♥s at the 2-level. All things considered it is better to pass while you still aren't doubled.

You overcall 2 ♥ and hear partner raise you to 3 ♥.

No matter how many times you check this hand you cannot revalue it any more than 13 points. Since partner has 10 at the most you reluctantly pass.

With only 7 points you might not think you have enough to make a "free bid". But in competitive bidding situations like these, where both sides have a fit, bidding is usually better than passing. So you bid 2♠.
