With 10 HCP and 10 red cards you have a good enough hand for an immediate DONT bid. So you bid 2♦, promising that suit and a Major.

Partner responds 2♥.

Don't get carried away, partner isn't really bidding a ♥ suit as much as he is letting you know he doesn't like ♦s. You were only competing for a partscore and here you are in a partscore. You pass.

OK, you only have 4 HCP. But you have 10 cards in the Majors. And, you are in the balancing seat. If West is willing to let it die at 1NT your partner must have some strength. So you should use DONT. You bid 2♥, showing both Major suits.

Partner responds 2♠.

Partner prefers ♠s to ♥s. Since you were bare minimum you pass.

Your hand is too balanced to intervene over West's 1NT so you pass.

Then partner overcalls 2♦.

Partner has two suits, ♦s and one of the Majors. If his other suit is ♥s then a 2♥ bid by you would work great. But if his other suit is ♠s anything you say would not be good.

Since you can tolerate ♦s your safest call is pass.

In the balancing seat it is distribution that counts, not point count. With a 6-card Major suit and a singleton you should not let them play 1NT. You double.

Partner makes the relay bid of 2♣.

You bid your suit, 2♥, and everybody passes. Notice that partner had a decent hand, but could not bid over 1NT in the immediate seat.

You don't have a 6-card suit, nor do you have a 5-4 pair of suits. So even with a singleton you don't want to use DONT here. So you pass.

Partner makes a DONT double in the balancing seat.

Right now you probably have a premonition about what is going to happen next. But there really is nothing you can say other than 2♣.

Your premonition came true. Partner passes and you are left playing 2♣ with a singleton. Nobody promised that DONT would always get you to a good contract.
